

Wisdom Not Worry

Monday, May 11, 2020

Habakkuk

God moves in a mysterious way,
His wonders to perform;
He plants his footsteps in the sea,
And rides upon the storm.

The familiar words of this hymn, inspired by William Cowper, could be Habakkuk's theme song.

Have circumstances ever made you want to ask: What are you doing God? Don't you see what is going on? Why don't you do something? Why are you silent? Don't you hear my prayers? The prophet Habakkuk did.

Over the next days, I invite you join me as together we eavesdrop on Habakkuk's conversation with God. If God's mysterious ways have you confused and heavy hearted, the words of this prophetic gem are sure to encourage, instruct and guide.

In preparation for our journey, would you read the book of Habakkuk. It will take about ten minutes of your time. Feel free to use your Bible's table of contents. As one of the shortest prophetic books, it can be a challenge to find. You know the saying, "Good things come in small packages."

Grateful,
Ben